he later accepted food from the crew and slept in a vacant cabin. [redacted] a boarding party composed of Public Health, customs, immigration representatives, agent, and nine border police came aboard. The police were split into parties of three each, fore, aft, and amidships, and a ship's officer accompanied each team while they searched the vessel. Radio transmission, use of fathometer, radar, and RDF were prohibited but the instruments themselves were not sealed. Nothing - not even paint stages - was permitted to be put overboard. [redacted]

6. Harbor Craft Water taxis take crewmen ashore from the vessels anchored at mooring buoys in subject port. These taxis call every half hour and carry crewmen ashore at various points, one of which is opposite the mooring buoy #9. From here one walks upstream to a point opposite mooring buoy #8 where the streetcar line ends.

7. Berth [redacted] vessel arrived at subject port in ballast, [redacted]
